Post A Job

Simply click on our "Post a Job" button to start describing the job that you need. Fill in as much information that you can provide to make it easier for interested freelancers to understand your requirements. Once your job is posted, freelancers will start sending you proposals for your job post. You can choose to accept, decline, or revise the propo-so that you and the service provider can come to a price that works best for both of you.

Note: And one more thing, if you are also a service provider, you can choose to exchange a service that you provide as payment for the service that you need. You have the option to either buy a service or exchange services if both parties are interested. Exchanging services with another service provider can help you save money.

If you have a job you want to get done, you can easily "Browse for Services" that our freelancers have posted. We have a pool of skilled professionals that post services they offer. Use our filters and search bar to narrow down the type of service that you need and once you find a service that you want, simply click on the "Send an Offer" button to start bidding for the service. Our bidding system is designed for you to get the most affordable rate. Even more interesting, we allow counter offers

Find a COFOUNDER

Need an ideal co-founder or a business partner? Before you decide to partner with someone on a business idea, it is important for you to get to know them first. Ideally, it would be great if you work with that person before making such a big decision. With JoBarter, you have the option to hire that person for a job or exchange services with that person to have a better understanding of the value they would bring to your business. In addition, you can also review their rating and feedback to have a better understanding of their experience working with other people. We can help you find the ideal partner you have been looking for to launch your business venture in two specific ways:

"Co-founder" when filling out your profile information. From there, a tab will appear for you to provide more details about your own experience as a co-founder. You also will need to provide information about the ideal co-founder you are looking for, including your wish list, preferred location, and relevant industry.

2. Browse for Co-founders You can easily find a partner for your business idea by navigating through our "Browse for Co-founders" page. To make it easier, you can select the category, rating, and country you want. If you find a potential candidate, you can add that person on your "Connection". Upon receiving an "Accepted Request" notification,
